50 year celebration of KD1 Nickel Discovery

Well it seems the hard times have thinned Kambalda out a bit, but they can't break her spirit.

Thursday night, the 28 of January saw a good gathering of seventy odd people or so at the Kambalda Community Recreation Facility, in celebration of the anniversary of the KD1 nickel discovery.

All walks of life of all ages came to celebrate her fifty years of existence. I was one of the many thousands, who over her fifty years had worked and lived in the town. I was now one of those who had come back to say thank you for those three years of my working life.

Those memories were reignited with some wonderful stories of the Nickel boom of the late 1960's and 1970's. It was the best place to be in if you were young and chasing good money with a young family.

Everything happened fast at Kambalda in those days. Development saw constant changes. The Silver Lake shaft was in full production and around the corner on the northern side was the Durkin shaft with its four big gin wheels up high on the head frame standing over what I believe was the first concrete circular shaft to be sunk in Australia. They had bought South African miners over to show Western Mining how to do it.

The town was divided into two parts, East and West with West being the second stage of development. Each week saw new houses and streets.

The money generated from Kambalda kept Kalgoorlie and Boulder afloat over those years. The gold price was down and the gold mines on Boulder's famous Golden Mile were doing it pretty tough.

Kambalda's Fifty Years

Tis sad regret, when last we met
Long gone the days that used to be
But still the face, that charming grace
Old memories come now beside me

For time has flown, where we have known
The nickel boom that shook this state
The whirlwind race, that rocked this place
Now resting with tomorrows fate

The Stock Exchange, bought modern change
When nickel was the magic share
And true to name, will come again
With Silver Lake the miners prayer

Then Durkin shaft, from Bullfinch past
The sulfide nickel down below
With men who came, by foreign name
And left their mark for all to know

Yes we can dream, where time has been
The children who were born and raised
Now standing proud, the moving crowd
Their modern skills have long been praised

Sit back and rest, you've done your best
This town has stood for fifty years
Hard work well played, its foundations laid
All built on laughter sweat and tears

The written page, of the town's age
The future now must make her call
The highs and lows, that comes and go's
Oh yes this town has stood them all

May tomorrow bring, on fortunes wind
Beyond another fifty years
Then carve her name, by those who came
Kambalda's early pioneers

From the desk of the Acting CEO

The Chief Executive Officer, Paul Webb is on well deserved annual leave, and as Acting Chief Executive it has provided me with an opportunity to address you.

My chosen topic was "the structure of Local Government", however, as my husband fell asleep while reading over my shoulder, I am opting instead to pay homage to those who spend their valuable time serving our community. For those of you suffering from insomnia, I will publish the structure article on Council's Facebook page.

To all who volunteer or work for our Emergency and Community Services whether it is running the Youth programs, promoting Art and Culture, participating in equestrian and 'Rev Head' activities for cars, bike or all the other diverse activities and interests pursued. To the supporters of the RSL and our service men. To the coaches, water boys, trainers and supporters or sporting groups. To all those elected to committees and their supporters. To those who go the extra mile in their area of employment, and the quiet achievers who 'keep an eye' on their neighbours, and finally to the awesome youth of our communities who are our future, and who probably get the worst press. I salute you.

Most of us have associations with communities far removed from the Shire of Coolgardie. To know that members of Our community are volunteering to leave their homes and families to assist and protect people and property they don't know, and may never meet fills me with pride for this Community where I am privileged to be a resident.

My original purpose in writing was to highlight the difficult role of Chief Executive Officer, I stand by this. It is a balancing act between the wants and expectations of the community, the Council, Staff and the statutory requirements of various legislation. Instead I ask all members of the Shire of Coolgardie community to be kind to each other, because I know that when it matters this community is united to one common goal.

A community with a strong heart.

Rhonda Evans
Acting Chief Executive Officer
16 January 2016

PS to the Community members who maintain regular contact with the CEO and Managers, please don't change. We may not always agree with your views, but we promise to always listen and consider them.

From P1

It is fair to say that many thousands of names and faces have worked and been part of this amazing story, coupled with wives and children they breathed life into the town overlooking that magnificent salt lake.

With the call of time many have travelled onto other places of their lives, all of them taking memories of a time in Western Australia's history.

Kambalda is not finished yet, it is just taking a breather. This town will go on and see many fifty year celebrations. It has laid it's foundations well with hard work and honesty, and the world still needs Kambalda.

God bless you Kambalda for you live in the hearts of men and women.

Vic Dale

The Shire of Coolgardie would like to thank the Kambalda Cultural and Arts Group for partnering with this event, and the following guest speakers, Cr Sherryl Botting, Mrs Billie Ingham and Mr Vic Dale.

How to prevent mosquitoes in your home

Did you know?

Only female mosquitoes bite. They need the protein from blood to develop their eggs.

Mosquito lifecycle

Mosquitoes go through four development stages – egg, wriggler (larva), tumbler (pupa) and finally adult.

This whole cycle from hatching egg to flying adult can take as little as 5 – 7 days in summer.

During colder months the life cycle may take several weeks.

Where do mosquitoes breed?

Mosquitoes can breed in any type of standing water, from natural and man-made water bodies to water holding containers. Backyards are a common breeding environment, with old car tyres, pot plant drip trays, septic tanks, rain – water tanks, blocked roof gutters, domestic ponds, paddling pools and disused containers like jars and buckets all being ideal breeding sites.

How can I minimise mosquito breeding sites in my backyard?

Dispose of all containers which hold water

Stock ornamental ponds with mosquito eating fish

Keep swimming pools well chlorinated, filtered and free of dead leaves

Level or drain depressions in the ground that hold water

Fit mosquito – proof covers to vent pipes on septic tank systems. Seal all gaps around the lid

Screen rain water tanks with insect proof mesh, including inlet, overflow and inspection ports.

Ensure guttering is not blocked and does not hold water.

Empty pot plant drip trays once a week or fill with sand

Empty and clean animal and pet drinking water bowls once a week.

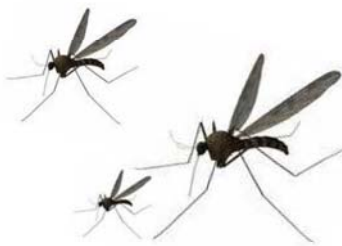

Residual chemical sprays can be used to further reduce mosquitoes. This should not, however, replace the removal and prevention of backyard breeding sites which is a more effective control method.

How can I avoid being bitten?

Cover up with long, loose fitting and preferably light coloured clothing.

Apply mosquito repellents

For babies and young children the best protection is protective clothing, only infant – strength repellents should be used on young children.

Motor Vehicle Security

Cars can be a soft target for criminals, however there are proven strategies you can adopt to reduce significantly the chance of your car being stolen.

To help protect your vehicle from crime, consider the following tips:

- it is compulsory to fit an approved immobiliser at the time of purchase of a vehicle;
- park your car off the street, preferably in your yard or in a locked garage;
- if you need to park on the street at night, ensure you park in a well-lit area;
- it is an offence to leave your keys in the ignition while your car is unattended;
- close all windows and lock all doors before leaving your car;
- remove any items from your car that may entice a thief;
- remove cheque books, credit cards, driver's licence and registration papers from your glove box; and,
- keep a spare key in your wallet or purse rather than keeping them hidden in or on the car.

The Winners of the Shire of Coolgardie Christmas Lights Competition are:

Kambalda

- 1st: $250.00 - Bianca Turfrey
2nd: $150.00 - Joanne Godman
3rd: $100.00 - Erleyne Wingate

Coolgardie

- 1st: $250.00 - Kylie Harris
2nd: $150.00 - Steven Forward

Thank you to all those who entered and for supporting this activity and we look forward to seeing the 2016 Christmas Lights displays.

Back to School Butterflies

I still get butterflies in my stomach when I think of my first day at school. The anticipation of seeing friends, and a few people I'd rather not face, finding out who my teachers would be, all that homework, study and exams. Ok, perhaps they were knots in my stomach. But those nerves weren't all bad, they were also about excitement and anticipation for the year ahead.

For over 3.6 million students across Australia heading to primary and secondary school over the next few weeks there will no doubt be plenty of butterflies.

While some students seemingly cruise through the whole thing, whether they're starting school for the first time, moving to a new school, starting high school or heading back for a new class, some young people find it a very challenging time. And let's face it, it can be tough for us as parents too.

For some children it's particularly difficult as they face extra pressures like getting the best grades, or dealing with bullying, and others may be dealing with mental health issues like anxiety or depression.

If you are a young person with something going on, or a parent with concerns about your child, you don't have to handle things alone.

headspace the national youth mental health foundation provides support for young people aged 12 to 25 who are struggling with their mental wellbeing.

General mental health and wellbeing resources can be found at headspace.org.au. For online and telephone support please visit headspace.org.au or call 1800 650 890, which is staffed by qualified youth mental health professionals.

Wishing you and your families a happy and healthy school year ahead - may those butterflies in your stomach be gentle, kind and full of promise.

50 year celebration of KD1 Nickel Discovery

In partnership with the Shire of Coolgardie, we joined hands in providing an historical display, including books, newsletters, newspaper articles, memorabilia frames and a slide show depicting a time line around the discovery hole drilled by Jack Lunnon on 28th January 1966.

Mostly long time Kambalda residents attended, but the crowd of about 80 also included people from the Eastern Goldfields Historical Society and Australian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy.

Putting this collection together has been tedious and time consuming, but very timely and appropriate for this milestone.

A special gift from Victor Churchill Dale

On request, our gifted poet and friend from Coolgardie, kindly wrote a poem for our celebration that was recited on the night and then donated to us and the Shire.

A suggestion was made by Vic that the poem be place on a plaque in remembrance of our milestone.

Where to from here?

Putting together a historical collection for this event was not an intended use, but a way of showing the potential of a historical collection for our important and interesting short history.

The further we delve into the past, the more we learn about the information for visitors to the Kambalda Arts Centre.

Displaying a pictorial history was our original intention, but in doing so, we have found that there is a limited availability of imagery due to copyright law, owners of copyright changing hands and access to information in public and national archives.

In summing up, to this point a lot of time initially has gone into researching and much more is required, so will be very a very slow process.

We have located some WMC archives that will be very important, but await ability to access the material.

Given our intension to create a pictorial display anyway, to date we have achieved quite a lot and that is accessible to the public, in the Kambalda Arts Centre.

The Pastor's Pen with Bill Kirkland

Jesus knew of two sisters whose names were Mary and Martha. One day while Jesus was visiting them Martha became agitated and upset with her sister because Martha was stressing over the meal preparations and house cleaning. Martha asked Jesus to speak to Mary about helping her out with the practical tasks. I suspect Jesus' response surprised Martha. He said, "Martha, Martha! You are worried and troubled over so many things, but just one is needed. Mary has chosen the right thing, and it will not be taken away from her." Mary had chosen to sit at the feet of Jesus and listen to His teachings.

Mary sat at the feet of Jesus and listened because she placed a far higher priority on this than stressing out over everyday affairs. She understood there would always be another lot of dishes to wash, another meal to cook, another room to clean. Compared to listening to the One with the words of eternal life these things, though necessary, were put into the right perspective.

Believers in Christ are called to put Him first which often means not focussing in on problems but instead pursuing Him. It's amazing how many things start to look menial when you sit and listen to the words of Jesus. Suddenly those issues that have caused so much stress and even anger don't seem that important anymore.

If Jesus was who He claimed to be we need to give priority to listening to what He has to say. If not we may as well "veg out" and be fed rubbish in front of the TV set. Jesus never encouraged people to be neglectful or slothful in regard to everyday duties however He often challenged His followers in regards to their priorities. How are yours looking right now?

A Personal Invitation To Come To Church .....

In 2010, the Rock of Ages Christian Church (the "Rock") was formed 2010 in Kalgoorlie Pastored by New Zealand born "Kiwi" Ps Wania (Wanz) Taiepa the Church has been going strong since. We maintain, believe and teach that Jesus Christ is the Son of God (Mathew 3:17, and behold a voice out of the Heavens said "This is my beloved Son in whom I am well please")

We would like to meet up with people and families who desire to have a more "meaningful" life for 2016, families who have been shattered by circumstance beyond their control, people who think "life is hopeless" and there is no way out, families and individuals who are not coping due to 'chaos' within.

We are here to say, there is a way out, there is hope and there is Peace and HE is there waiting for YOU. You will hear testimonies from people who have literally been to Hell and back through suicidal, separation, bankrupt; drug abuse etc, these same people will encourage you and support you. This is your year for change, don't let the Devil take another day away from you by telling you "your hopeless, no one wants to help you,...give up" Our God, our Lord and Saviour, our Prince of Peace is waiting for you and He is not about to give up on someone he created and Loves. Even if you are just looking for a place to worship, then come along to the "Rock" to be refreshed, renewed, and restarted, Isaiah 40:27-31, declares, "They that wait upon the Lord SHALL renew their strength".

Kambalda Church services resume again Sunday 14 February 2016, services in Kalgoorlie have commenced. For more information please contact Ps Wanz, 0409630292.
