

Profile (as it will appear in the election materials)

MEAGHER, COLIN

MEAGHER, COLIN is eligible to stand for election as a resident of the Shire of Coolgardie.

My name is Colin Meagher. My wife Ann and I have proudly called Coolgardie home for the past five years, where we built our home and became part of this great community. I'm a retired motor mechanic with experience in small business ownership and public service. Before settling here, Ann and I spent 15 years managing caravan parks across Australia, gaining valuable skills in community engagement and operations. I've watched with concern the growing division between the Shire Council and residents. It's disheartening to see the trust break down. If elected as a Councillor, I will focus on restoring unity, transparency and open communication between the Council, ratepayers, and the community. I am committed to acting with integrity and fairness, always putting the best interests of Coolgardie first. Together, we can rebuild trust and help our town grow and thrive.
